The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 10, to Saturday October 14, 1749.

Lisbon, September 21, N. S.

THE King having by a Convention with the Court of Spain obliged himſelf to ſend two Ships of War to cruize upon the Corſairs of Barbary, the Star of 60 Guns, and la Notre Dame de la Piete & St. Francois, were appointed for that Purpoſe; they have accordingly been at Sea for ſome Time, and are now returned from their Cruize without having met with any of thoſe Corſairs.

Madrid, September 29, N. S. The 26th Inſtant the Chevalier d'Oſſorio, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, had a particular Audience of his Majeſty, in which he preſented a Letter from the King of Sardinia, containing a Demand of the Infanta Dona-Marie-Antoinette in Marriage for the Duke of Savoy; and the King having given him a favourable Anſwer, the Marqueſs d'Oſſorio immediately ſent it by a Courier to the Court of Turin. Rear Admiral Spinola, with the four Ships under his Command, having on board near 16 Millions of Piaſtres, is not expected at Cadiz till the End of the Year, one of the Ships having ſuffered greatly in her Voyage from La Vera Cruz to the Havanna.

Genoa, September 30, N. S. Several Ships arrived here laſt Week from divers Ports in the Mediterranean, laden with Proviſions and Merchandize for this City; and the Captains of thoſe from Corſica and Sardinia ſay, that though the Corſairs of Barbary had Fourteen Galliots cruizing in the Italian Seas, they had not heard of their having taken any conſiderable Prize. The Algerines have alſo ſeveral Xebecks at Sea, but we do not hear of their having taken any Thing lately. We learn by Letters from Barcelona, that the Marqueſs de Bonde Real was arrived there, and would ſoon ſet out for Parma, where he is to reſide as Miniſter Plenipotentiary from his moſt Catholick Majeſty. The Marqueſs de Monti, Colonel of the Regiment Royal Italian, in the Service of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, arrived here in three Days from Antibes, by whom we learn, that there were four Gallies lying ready at Toulon to ſail for Antibes, to take on board the Infanta Dutcheſs of Parma, and conduct her to Italy.

Stockholm, October 6, N. S. M. de Windt, Miniſter from the King of Denmark, has had divers Conferences within theſe few Days paſt with the Miniſters of this Court; and the Secretary of the Embaſſy of the States General has notified to the King, that their High Mightineſſes had named the Count de Wartenſleben to be their Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of his Swediſh Majeſty.

Vienna, October 8, N. S. The Conferences which have been held for ſome Days paſt, have principally turned, as 'tis believed, on the Affairs in the North; and the rather, as a Courier is arrived here from Moſcow with the Reſolutions of the extraordinary Council which was held there the 5th of September. Advices from Spielbourg in Moravia mention the Death of the late Baron Trenck, in the Caſtle of that Place; he had commanded a conſiderable Body of Pandours during the late War, but was afterwards condemned to a perpetual Impriſonment. The 4th Inſtant, being the Feaſt of St. Francis, whoſe Name the Emperor bears, the ſame was celebrated at Court with the greateſt Magnificence, all the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters appearing at Schonbrun, to compliment his Imperial Majeſty on that Occaſion.

Geneva, October 10, N. S. Laſt Friday we received the agreeable News of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's having ratified the Treaty which M. Muſſard had concluded with the French Miniſters; on this Occaſion the Magiſtrates of this City expreſſed great Satisfaction, and on the 7th gave a grand Entertainment to M. de Champeaux, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Reſident, to which the Duke de Randan, Lieutenant General ral and Governor of Beſancon, was invited; and the next Day his Grace having ſeen all that is curious at this Place, ſet out for his Government of Beſancon.

Paris, October 13, N. S. The King has named M. de St. Conteſt to be his Ambaſſador to the States General, and it is expected he will ſet out for the Hague in about a Month. Prince Frederick of Heſſe Caſſel has been for ſome Days at Fontainbleau, where he is treated with great Diſtinction, and often goes a Hunting with his Majeſty. The young Prince of Naſſau Weilbourg, who came hither with the Prince of Heſſe, is ſet out for Lauſanne. The Marqueſs de Puyzieulx, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who has been very much indiſpoſed for ſome Time paſt, is now perfectly recovered. The King has been twice to Choiſy ſince the Court has reſided at Fontainbleau. We hear from Toulon, that two Men of War, of 60 Guns each, were launched there the 4th of this Month. By Letters from Madrid we are informed, that they expect Sixteen Millions of Pieces of Eight to arrive at Cadiz, towards the End of the Year, from the Weſt Indies.

Hambourg, October 12, N. S. We learn from Brunſwick, that M. Guydickens, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain to the Court of Ruſſia, paſſed by there on his Way to Dreſden, and was received in a very genteel Manner by the Duke and Dutcheſs of Wolfenbuttel.

Hambourg, October 14, N. S. Sir Cyril Wich arrived here laſt Saturday, the 11th Inſtant, from England.

Leipſick, October 14, N. S. Since the Arrival of their Majeſties, a great Number of Foreigners of Diſtinction are come to this City to ſee the Fair, which 'tis imagined will be very conſiderable, as many Merchants are already arrived.

Berlin, October 14, N. S. The King has raiſed to the Dignity of a Count, M. Frederick William de Lepell, a Pomeranean Gentleman, Knight of the Order of St. John of Jeruſalem, and Commander of Lietzen and Schiefelbein. His Majeſty has appointed M. de Borke, Colonel of the Regiment of Stille, to be Governor of Minden, vacant by the Death of the late Colonel de Bornſtedt; and his Majeſty has alſo appointed M. Witzleben to be Major of the Town of Stettin. M. Hinuber, Secretary to the Embaſſy of the King of Great Britain to the Court of Ruſſia, arrived in this City on the 10th Inſtant. M. Faſch, the King's Agent and Counſellor of Commerce at Amſterdam, who has been here for ſome Time, is ſet out on his Return to his Poſt.

Coblentz, October 17, N. S. M. du Four, charged with the Affairs of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to the Elector of Treves, having received his Letters of Revocation, has had his Audience of his Electoral Highneſs, and will ſoon ſet out for France.

Amſterdam, October 20, N. S. The Magiſtrates of this City have publiſhed an Ordonnance for the better Obſervance of the Sabbath-Day.

Hague, October 22, N. S. The Greffier Fagel, and the Secretary M. Hop, are returned hither from the Caſtle of Loo, where they left the whole Court in perfect Health; and M. de Haſſelaer is alſo returned hither from the Court of Great Britain. We learn from Middlebourg, that the States of the Province of Zealand ſeparated Yeſterday, and that the Baron de Borſſelen was thereupon ſet out on a Tour to Guelderland. On Thurſday laſt died, in the 86th Year of his Age, M. Chriſtian Frederick Hertell, General of Infantry, and Director General of the Fortifications, having ſerved the Republick with great Reputation ever ſince the Year 1684. We hear from Fontainbleau, that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has appointed M. de St. Conteſt, Intendant of Bourgogne, to be his Ambaſſador to their High Mightineſſes the States General of the United Provinces. Meſſ. van Dyk and Buteux are return'd hither from Amſterdam, and have reported to their High Mightineſſes the Reſult of the Deliberations of the Weſt India Company. M. Francis Louis Boſc de la Calmette has taken the Oath, before the Council of State, as Major and Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Rump, in which he is to rank as Colonel.

Whitehall, October 13.

The King has been pleaſed to grant the Dignity of a Counteſs of the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto the Right Honourable Heſter, Viſcounteſs Cobham, by the Name, Style and Title of Counteſs Temple; and the Dignity of Earl Temple to the Heirs Male of her Body.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Congé d'Elire to paſs the Great Seal of Great Britain, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Chathedral Church of Norwich, to elect a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being now vacant by the Death of Dr. Samuel Liſle, late Biſhop thereof: And alſo to order a Letter under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, recommending to the ſaid Dean and Chapter Thomas Hayter, Doctor in Divinity, one of his Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter Weſtminſter, to be by them elected Biſhop of the ſaid See of Norwich.

The King has been pleaſed to ſend his Recommendatory Letter to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, London, for Richard Terrick, Doctor in Divinity, to be a Canon Reſidentiary of the ſaid Cathedral Church, in the room of Dr. Samuel Baker, deceaſed.
